SMU

HOME SCHOOL SUPPLEMENT

Date of Birth	APPLICANT
Date of Birth	Legal Name	Last Name	First Name	Middle Name	□ Female □ Ma
Address House Number and Street City State ZIP Code TO THE EDUCATION COORDINATOR Philosophy Please tell us why home schooling was chosen for this student, and explain your home schooling philosophy. Grading Scale Please explain the grading scale or other methods of evaluation. Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please
Address House Number and Street City State ZIP Code TO THE EDUCATION COORDINATOR Philosophy Please tell us why home schooling was chosen for this student, and explain your home schooling philosophy. Grading Scale Please explain the grading scale or other methods of evaluation. Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please	Home Phone Number	/	Cell Phone Number	_/
TO THE EDUCATION COORDINATOR Philosophy Please tell us why home schooling was chosen for this student, and explain your home schooling philosophy. Grading Scale Please explain the grading scale or other methods of evaluation. Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please	Email Address
Philosophy Please tell us why home schooling was chosen for this student, and explain your home schooling philosophy. Grading Scale Please explain the grading scale or other methods of evaluation. Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please	Address	House Number and Street	City	State	ZIP Code
Philosophy Please tell us why home schooling was chosen for this student, and explain your home schooling philosophy. Grading Scale Please explain the grading scale or other methods of evaluation. Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please	TO THE EDUCATION	I COORDINATOR
Please explain the grading scale or other methods of evaluation. Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please
Please explain the grading scale or other methods of evaluation. Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please	Please tell us why home	schooling was chosen for this stu	dent, and explain your home schooling	philosophy.
Please explain the grading scale or other methods of evaluation. Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please
If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please
Please explain the grading scale or other methods of evaluation. Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please
Please explain the grading scale or other methods of evaluation. Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please
Please explain the grading scale or other methods of evaluation. Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please
Please explain the grading scale or other methods of evaluation. Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please	Grading Scale
Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please
If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please	Please explain the gradin	ng scale or other methods of evalu	ation.
If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please
Additional Courses If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please also describe below.
If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please
If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please
If the student has taken courses from a distance learning program, traditional secondary school, or institution of higher education, please detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please	Additional Courses detail them here. In addition, if the student has taken any standardized testing other than those listed on your student's application, please detail them here. In add

EVALUATION

character, relative maturity and integrity. Please feel free to subn	nit a letter of recommendatio	on in addition to t	this form.
You feel that your student's application would be better served through a teacher/tutor recommendation, you are welcome to waive the ounselor Recommendation by submitting a statement below. The wording for this statement can be found at mu.edu/apply/homeschool.

EDUCATION COORDINATOR INFORMATION
Coordinator's Name
Coordinator's Phone Number/	Coordinator's Fax Numbe	er/
Coordinator's Email Address
Coordinator's Address	City	State	ZIP Code
Are you a member of a home school association? ☐ Yes ☐ No If yo	es, name of association:
Coordinator Signature	Date

Please evaluate the academic and personal traits of this applicant. The Admission Committee is particularly interested in the qualities of

INSTRUCTIONS

You must return this form to the SMU Office of Undergraduate Admission. Incomplete forms cannot be accepted.

Please return this form along with the following:

- 1. Official High School Transcript
- 2. Letter of Recommendation (if submitting)

The form can be mailed to the address below, submitted via email to ugadmission@smu.edu or faxed to 214-768-5048.