

UNIV Lecturer

Position # 5789

The Office of the Provost at Southern Methodist University invites applications for a non-tenure track position at the Lecturer level in the Office of Student Academic Engagement and Success. This is a unique opportunity to join a new, innovative, interdisciplinary academic program that focuses on first-year and transfer students' personal, academic, and leadership development as they transition to college as well as effective and responsible ways to engage in the greater Dallas community. We welcome candidates from all backgrounds.

This is a 9-month appointment for the 2024-2025 academic year on an annual renewal cycle. The successful candidate will be responsible for a faculty teaching load of 12 credit hours per semester including but not limited to courses addressing community engagement pedagogy, personal and leadership development, and academic success strategies. Maintaining an appropriate student-centered presence on campus and participating in ongoing curriculum development are also essential responsibilities. The ideal candidate will demonstrate a sincere interest in teaching and working with traditional first-year students and transfer students in their transition to campus.

A master's degree is required, preferably in Education, Psychology or related academic discipline. Further, a demonstrated expertise to teach courses at the undergraduate level across a multi-disciplinary spectrum regarding students' transition to college is required.

Preferred qualifications include an earned doctoral degree or completed requirements for a doctoral degree in Education, Higher Education, Curriculum & Instruction, Educational Leadership, Educational Psychology or related field by May 2024. Prior collegiate teaching experience is preferred, but experience in counseling, advising, or related activities will be considered in relation to teaching experience. Experience in meeting the academic support needs of a wide variety of students is strongly preferred.

Review of applications will begin on April 27, 2024. To ensure full consideration for the position, the application must be received by April 27, 2024, but the committee will continue to accept applications until the position is filled. The committee will notify applicants of its employment decisions after the position is filled. Reference the position number (#5789) in all documents submitted for application: (1) cover letter outlining teaching and service experience and related qualifications; (2) curriculum vitae; (3) the names, affiliations, and contact information for three references. References will only be contacted if the candidate advances to the on-campus interview stage.

Please submit all materials electronically through Interfolio at: <http://apply.interfolio.com/143507>. For questions about the search submission process, the department, or the position, please contact Dr. Caitlin Anderson, search committee chair, at caitlina@smu.edu. Hiring is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of a background check. The start date for this position is August 1, 2024. Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience.

SMU will not discriminate in any program or activity on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation, or gender identity and expression. The Executive Director for Access and Equity/Title IX Coordinator is designated to handle inquiries regarding nondiscrimination policies and may be reached at the Perkins Administration Building, Room 204, 6425 Boaz Lane, Dallas, TX 75205, 214-768-3601, accessequity@smu.edu.