SMU's beautiful campus has been a hallmark of the University since it opened nearly 100 years ago. Classic architecture and historically significant buildings, as well as the latest in environmental design, add to the experience. Tree-lined walks, colorful flowers, open green spaces and outdoor art make strolling through the quad a pleasant experience. Explore one of the most beautiful urban campuses in the country.

1 START HERE

Visitor parking is available in Binkley Parking Garage, located at the corner of SMU Boulevard and Airline Road. Call Undergraduate Admission during business hours at 214-768-0496 to receive a visitor validation ticket to park free of charge.

2 LAURA LEE BLANTON STUDENT SERVICES BUILDING

is a great place to start your tour and enjoy the beautiful view of the eastern entrance to campus. The Blanton Building houses Enrollment Services, including Undergraduate, Transfer and International Admission, Financial Aid and the Bursar's Office. Also in Blanton are the offices for SMU-in-Taos and SMU Abroad.

3 MOODY COLISEUM

is east of the Mustang Plaza and Mall, where you will see the Mustangs sculpture. Moody Coliseum is home to Mustang basketball and volleyball. Beyond the coliseum is the Crum Basketball Center practice facility. With 17 Division I sports, SMU competes in Conference USA.

4 DEDMAN CENTER for LIFETIME SPORTS

offers the latest trends in health and fitness. The center includes climbing walls, basketball, racquetball and indoor soccer courts, recreation pool, dance/aerobic/cycling rooms, weight room and fitness area, sand volleyball courts, classrooms and a café.

5 GERALD J. FORD STADIUM

is near the statue of 1948 Heisman Trophy winner Doak Walker and seats 32,000 people. Before home football games, students, alumni, faculty and the community tailgate nearby on "The Boulevard." Ford Stadium also is home to the Altshuler Learning Enhancement Center (LEC), which offers skills for academic success and tutoring services for undergraduate courses and disciplines.

6 MEADOWS MUSEUM

houses the largest and most comprehensive collection of Spanish art outside of Spain. Its exterior features the Santiago Calatrava sculpture fountain Wave. In addition to special exhibits and public programs, the museum offers docent tours and lectures. The museum is open Tuesday through Sunday.

7 SOUTH QUAD

features several first-year residence halls, including Cockrell-McIntosh, McElvaney and Morrison-McGinnis. McElvaney is the home of Mac's Place, one of the main dining services on campus. SMU residence halls feature wireless connectivity and a variety of room types, bathroom styles and community areas.

8 PERKINS SCHOOL of THEOLOGY

is an internationally recognized seminary of The United Methodist Church. The world-renowned Bridwell Library has a collection of ancient biblical texts and Bibles and offers theological resources for pastors and scholars unrivaled in the southwestern United States. Perkins Chapel hosts weekly worship services and is one of the most popular places in Dallas to get married.

9 MEADOWS SCHOOL of THE ARTS

is recognized as one of the premier arts schools in the nation and offers studies in the visual, performing and communication arts. Hamon Arts Library contains more than 130,000 items and provides access to more online arts resources. Temerlin Advertising Institute boasts SMU's award-winning student advertising team, Praxis. Three theatres – the Bob Hope, the Greer Garson and the Margo Jones – are located here.

10 NORTH QUAD

has more of the University's residence halls, including Shuttles, Virginia-Snyder honors hall and Mary Hay and Peyton arts theme communities. Memorial Health Center, which is staffed with physicians, nurses, pharmacists and laboratory and X-ray technicians, is also located here.

11 UMPHREY LEE CENTER

houses the Belo Journalism Complex with television and radio studios, computer labs and editing suites. SMU-TV broadcasts from the studio and includes "The Daily Update," a streaming news show written and produced by students. On the lower level of Umphrey Lee is Real Food on Campus (RFoC), the main dining hall.

12 McFARLIN AUDITORIUM

hosts University academic events, touring shows and the Tate Lecture Series, which brings to campus some of the world's most interesting and provocative speakers, such as former presidents, commentators, futurists and artistic legends. The Tate Series annually returns almost $1 million in student scholarships to the University.

13 DEDMAN SCHOOL of LAW ranked No. 1 among all Texas law schools on the July 2009 bar exam. SMU law graduates passed the state bar at a rate of 94% on their first sitting, compared to 80% statewide. Qualified SMU undergraduates can earn early acceptance to Dedman Law through the Pre-Law Scholars program. The Underwood Law Library is the largest private law library in the Southwest.

14 DALLAS HALL, the first building on campus and the home of Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences, is one of 10 SMU buildings listed on the National Historic Register. Dallas Hall opened its doors in 1915 and symbolizes SMU's commitment to academic excellence. Inside the main doors, look up at the beautiful Rotunda and down at the University seal. Because Dallas Hall was built on a hill, SMU was nicknamed "The Hilltop."

15 SCIENCE QUAD, east of Dallas Hall, provides classrooms, labs and research facilities.

The Pre-medical Studies Center also is located here. Nearby buildings are Heroy Science Hall and Fondren Science Building.

16 ANNETTE CALDWELL SIMMONS HALL is the newest building on campus and home to the Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development.

As with all new construction on campus, Simmons Hall was built to meet Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) standards to lessen environmental impact.

17 FONDREN LIBRARY CENTER greets visitors with the Laura Bush Promenade, a walkway and garden made possible by a gift to SMU from President George W. Bush in honor of his wife and SMU alumna Laura Bush's contributions to the advancement of libraries and literacy.

During the school year, Fondren Library is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The Science Information Center, a resource for engineering, is adjacent to Fondren Library. SMU's nine libraries have more than two million volumes. The DeGolyer Library houses special collections, including the archives of Texas Instruments and JCPenney, as well as the personal papers of Stanley Marcus.

18 HUGHES-TRIGG STUDENT CENTER has a food court on the lower level with Subway, Chick-fil-A and Pizza Hut Express. Java City Café, a popular campus hangout, is on the second floor.

The hub for SMU's 180 student clubs and organizations, it also houses a post office, ticket office, M Lounge video game center, convenience store, computer store, barber shop, career center and copy center, plus meeting rooms and key student services. The Hegi Family Career Development Center offers career counseling and assessment and sponsors an active campus job-listing program.

19 COX SCHOOL of BUSINESS is housed in Fincher, Maguire and Crow buildings, as well as Collins Executive Education Center. A Business Library and Einstein Bros. Bagels are located in the basement of Fincher. Cox students have access to professional academic advisers and the exclusive Cox Career Counseling Office. All student services are accessible in the Maguire building, where undergraduate business classes are taught. The Cox BBA program is ranked No. 31 in the U.S. by BusinessWeek magazine. Cox is the only business school in the southwest with three MBA programs ranked in the top 20 by leading publications such as The Wall Street Journal, BusinessWeek and U.S. News & World Report.

20 BOBBY B. LYLE SCHOOL of ENGINEERING prepares graduates for success in technology, industry and public service. Lyle graduates are leaders and creative thinkers prepared to take on the most profound challenges confronting society and the planet. Gender parity is a top priority at Lyle, and with more than 35 percent female enrollment, Lyle is well ahead of the national average of 19 percent.

The Junkins and Embrey buildings and Caruth Hall are some of the newest on campus and most technologically advanced on any college campus. Embrey (2008) and Caruth (2010) were built to meet LEED Gold standards.

21 SMU BOOKSTORE is a Barnes and Noble bookstore, located one block south of Doak Walker Plaza at Mockingbird Lane and Airline Road. It sells all SMU-required textbooks as well as great spirit items.

22 The GEORGE W. BUSH PRESIDENTIAL CENTER housing a library, museum and institute is scheduled to open on this site in 2013.

THANK YOU for VISITING SMU!

We hope you enjoyed your time on campus. Come and see us again for a formal guided campus and residence hall tour and information session. To schedule a visit, please call 214-768-0496.

A MATCH made in TEXAS

SMU and Dallas are a great combination. SMU's 230-acre, tree-lined campus combining classic Georgian architecture, the latest in green building design and outdoor art melds well with Dallas's progressive image and commitment to the arts, culture and business. At SMU, students experience a world-class university in a truly international city.
