

SMU Alumni Board Nomination Information

The SMU Alumni Board is the leadership board of the SMU Alumni community. The vision and mission of the Alumni board is to be visible champions of SMU and engage alumni with each other and the University in order to promote its goals and secure its future.

Criteria for a candidate include:

- A degree from SMU
- Willing to serve a three year term
- Able to attend two of three annual meetings per year in Dallas (April, November, February)
- Demonstrated a history of volunteer or leadership experience, not necessarily connected with SMU
- Ideally, the candidate has volunteered for SMU in a previous role (reunion committee, chapter leader, etc.)
- Ideally, the candidate has financially supported SMU

Any SMU alumni may nominate a fellow alumnus or alumna for a board position.

- Nominations may be sent to:

SMU Office of Alumni Relations
Attn: Nominations
P.O. Box 750173
Dallas, TX 75275-0173

OR

smualum@smu.edu

- The SMU Office of Alumni Relations will confirm SMU activities.
- Additional letters of support are accepted but not necessary.
- Nominations must be received by December 31 for consideration the next year.
- Once nominated, the individual's name remains in nomination for a total of three consecutive years, including the initial year in which they were nominated. After that time, the individual may be nominated again.

Questions about the nomination process should be directed to Alumni Relations: 214-SMU-ALUM or 888-327-3755, or smualum@smu.edu .
