

Some things you may not know about “Goose” Gossage:

“Goose” Gossage...

Played for 11 different professional teams including the Texas Rangers, New York Yankees and the Fukuoka Daiei Hawks (Japan)

Pitched in three World Series and won the championship with the Yankees in 1978

Was known for throwing one pitch, a fastball that routinely reached 100 mph

Had an ERA less than 2.27 in eight of his first ten seasons as a closer, and over his career, right-handers hit only .211 against him

Surrendered the infamous “Pine Tar Game” homerun to George Brett as a member of the New York Yankees

Recorded his 308th career save to preserve Nolan Ryan’s 308th career win in 1991 when both Hall of Famers pitched for the Texas Rangers

Struck out Pete Rose in Rose’s final major league at-bat

See “Goose” Gossage at The Texas Rangers Luncheon of the Guaranty Bank SMU Athletic Forum

Wednesday, October 7

Noon

Hilton Anatole Hotel

For more information or to purchase tickets please visit smu.edu/athleticforum or call 214-768-4314