

Bridwell Lunch Talks

Fall 2009

Bridwell Library has lined up another semester of instructive and interesting B.L.T.s designed to keep Perkins School of Theology and Religious Studies graduate students up on the latest technology, resources, and research techniques. Bridwell also provides lunch! This semester the lunch talks will address the important topics listed below:

❖ New Library Catalog and Online Resources

Thursday 9/17, 12:30 – 1:15, Bridwell Library Benefactors Room

Over the summer there have been changes to many of our online resources including the library catalog. This session will be useful for new and returning students alike. Come learn how to make these resources work for you!

❖ Methodist History Resources

Thursday 10/8, 12:30 – 1:15, Bridwell Library Benefactors Room

This session will acquaint students with the wide variety of Methodist resources available to them at Bridwell, and discuss strategies for mining other resources for Methodist information. Useful for anyone taking or planning to take Methodist history courses.

❖ Library Tools for Biblical Exegesis: Print Resources

Thursday 10/15, 12:30 – 1:15, Bridwell Library Benefactors Room

This session is an introductory overview of basic print sources useful for biblical exegesis. It will be geared toward students who have not done exegetical work in the past or need a refresher.

❖ Library Tools for Biblical Exegesis: Digital Resources

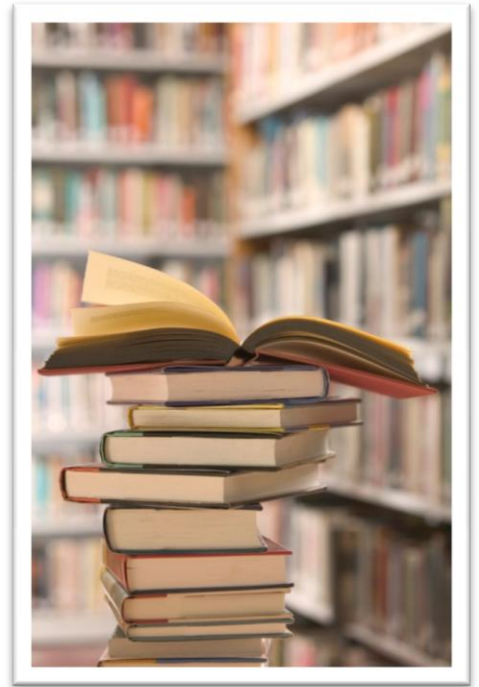

Thursday 10/22, 12:30 – 1:15, Bridwell Library Benefactors Room

Digital (cd-rom, database and website) exegetical tools will be discussed. Learn how locate these resources and use them to complement print materials. Useful for students at all levels.

❖ Special Collections

Thursday 11/12, 12:30 – 1:15, Bridwell Library Benefactors Room
