

Darwin's Evolving Legacy

CELEBRATING IDEAS THAT SHAPE OUR WORLD

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12

9:30 A.M. – NOON

A FACULTY SYMPOSIUM ON THE "YEAR OF DARWIN"

McCord Auditorium (306 Dallas Hall)

PROF. LARRY RUBEN

Organizer and moderator, Department of Biological Sciences, Dedman College

RONALD WETHERINGTON

Department of Anthropology, Dedman College "Evolution and the Problem of Heritability"

LOUIS JACOBS

Department of Geological Sciences, Dedman College "Amber Lizards and Snakes with Legs: Paleontology at SMU"

JOHN WISE

Department of Biological Sciences, Dedman College

"Down in the Trenches: Evolution of Gene Families and Effects on Modern Medicine"

RHONDA BLAIR

Division of Theatre, Meadows School of the Arts

"Theatre and Cognitive Neuroscience: Science's Impact on Ideas of the Actor"

---

Admission is free and open to the public

SMU | DEDMAN
COLLEGE

Darwin's Evolving Legacy is a lecture series sponsored by SMU's Office of the Provost, Dedman College, Perkins School of Theology and Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development.