Michael Colatrella came by the station to discuss his presentation before the Tyler Chapter of the Foreign Policy Association at the Tyler Public Library. This is part of the FPA's Great Decision series that, in part, hosts discussion groups around the country to educate communities about global affairs. Mr. Colatrella topic is a quick brief on "Blacklisting Our Enemies." He discussed "How the U.S. deals with international challenges and how it depends on how it engages with allies, as well as enemies. Also how the U.S. deals with countries like Cuba, North Korea and Iran.
