EXTRA CREDIT

Sometimes the smartest children can be the most difficult to deal with. They ask a lot of questions and want complex answers.

Kathy Hargrove

Dr. Kathy Hargrove has learned over the years how to handle the brightest students and shared her insight through the Gifted Students Institute at Southern Methodist University. For her efforts she has been awarded the 2000 Outstanding Administrator in Gifted Education award from the Texas Association for the Gifted and Talented. Dr. Hargrove has been an education consultant for 16 years and recently was appointed director of teacher education at SMU. As institute director, she conducted regular seminars for teachers and organized enrichment classes at SMU for gifted students.
