Dear Karen,

It is with great pleasure that I write to notify you that you will receive an IMSLEC Innovator Award as an Outstanding Educator in a University at our annual meeting in Seattle on Wednesday, October 29, 2008.

The International Multisensory Structured Language Education Council (IMSLEC) is a private non-profit council of accredited training courses that provide instruction in code-based multisensory language teaching techniques for educators, teachers and academic therapists. Each year, beginning in 2003, IMSLEC Innovator Awards are given in the following categories:

- Outstanding Educator in a University
- Outstanding School Administrator
- Outstanding MSLE Therapist
- Outstanding MSLE Teacher
- Outstanding MSLE Professional

Honorees are recognized at the IMSLEC Council meeting held at the International Dyslexia Association conference each year. I hope that you will be attending the conference this year and can receive your award in person. We would like for you to join us at the Council meeting which begins at 1:00 pm on Wednesday, October 29. We are currently scheduled to meet in the Lopez A/B rooms at the Red Lion Inn. Award recipients will be recognized at the beginning of our Council meeting.

Please let us know if you will be able to join us in Seattle by contacting our Administrative Associate, Marty Cooley, at 972-774-1772, ext. 227 or by email (mcooley@shelton.org). Again, congratulations, and thank you for your dedication to the field of multisensory structured language education.

Sincerely,

Phyllis B. Meisel
