This 4th international energy conference specializes in the use of oil and gas fields for geothermal electrical development. Existing oil and gas field data can be used for the initial exploration phase and in some cases the wells themselves can be directly put into production. The end user of the electricity can be as close as the field itself, or sold through power agreements. Technology, Resources, Finance, Engineering, Green Production ... all aspects of power development are discussed. Last year over 200 people attended the conference. Details are at <http://smu.edu/geothermal>. We look forward to your Sponsorship of this timely and unique event.
