

Orientation 2012

First Year and Transfer Students

Getting Ready for AARO – January 11, 2012

When you attend AARO, you will meet your advisor face to face. Your advisor will help you learn to navigate the channels of higher education. Your skills and desires and his or her knowledge of University requirements will come together as you craft an SMU education plan as unique as your character. At the end of your advising meeting, you will register for spring classes.

Before you meet your advisor, it's a good idea to review your Owner's Manual (www.smu.edu/newstudent) and to study the Course Catalog (www.smu.edu/registrar). After all, you want to be in the driver's seat as you plan. In order to determine which courses you want to take and which course levels will best suit your skills, you may take academic placement tests during your time at AARO. You will also want to discover the many helpful resources on campus – tutoring, career planning, health center, clubs and interest groups, programs, and study abroad options – so you'll be ready to take command of your opportunities when your school year begins.

Before you meet your advisor, it's a good idea to review your Owner's Manual (www.smu.edu/newstudent) and to study the Course Catalog (www.smu.edu/registrar).

Welcome from the Office of New Student Orientation and Student Support

The orientation process is designed to introduce you and your family to the information you need prior to the start of the semester and also facilitates building relationships with other incoming students, continuing students, faculty and staff. Employment on Campus

National studies indicate college students who work part time find it beneficial in supplementing finances, acclimating to campus, and learning skills such as time management. SMU offers students a variety of resources to locate work opportunities on and off campus.

Please visit the Division of Enrollment Services Student Employment website (smu.edu/financial_aid/stemploy.asp) to receive additional information regarding campus work programs, referrals, placement, and employment while at SMU. If you have more questions after AARO regarding either financial aid awarded to work study programs or other employment on campus, contact the Student Employment Office (Laura Lee Blanton Student Services Building) at 214-768-3490 or stu_employ@smu.edu.

The Hegi Family Career Development Center is an additional resource to contact regarding on- and off-campus jobs. The Career Center's on-line employment database, Mustang Trak, offers a wide variety of jobs for SMU students only and career counselors on staff can help you prepare your resume for these part-time positions. Please visit smu.edu/career or call 214-768-2266 for more information.

To comply with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, all students must complete the I-9 process in order to have part-time employment at SMU. This process can be completed through Human Resources, Expressway Tower Building, second floor, any time before the start of employment. See the Student Employment website for necessary documents.

Parents and Family Members: Welcome to the Hilltop!

As the parents and family members of a new Mustang, you are part of the larger SMU family – a family rich in heritage and educational opportunities. This family includes not only those who choose to study here, but the thousands of graduates over the years who remember with pride their experiences “on the Hilltop” as well as all those who work and teach at this University. We are dedicated to providing a unique educational experience for our students, one that will be valued by students and families for years to come.

Students typically spend their college years away from home, and although their role may change, parents continue to play a critical role in a student's educational experience. Because these college years are often a time for uncertain change in the relationship between parents/families and their student, SMU welcomes parent/family involvement in a student's experience when appropriate and encourages parents to continue to give the benefit of their support.

In fact, you will be receiving a copy of the Owner's Manual designed to make your student's academic transition easier. You will find the information useful as you gain an understanding of the academic challenges facing your student. Your first responsibility as the parent of a college student is not “to do it for them,” but to encourage your student to take advantage of all that SMU offers and to take responsibility for the educational experience he/she will have at SMU.

AARO is designed to help both families and students identify resources, opportunities, policies, and offices that will serve as a guide for the next few years. The support and encouragement you provide will be enhanced if you have a clear understanding of the educational and social opportunities here at SMU and your role during this important time of self-discovery for your student. Many of the activities offered during AARO are open to both families and students. A schedule includes several information sessions for parents/families only, while the individual academic advising sessions and small group discussions are for students only. During AARO, parents/families will have an opportunity to meet and talk with other families of new students. For many, this will be your first experience enrolling a child in college, while others are “seasoned” veterans. Regardless, the interaction among parents during AARO continues to be a favorite SMU memory.

Testing for Placement and Credit

WORLD LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES PLACEMENT EXAM

Students who have had at least two years of language instruction in high school within the past two years, or who have acquired language skills in some other manner, are required to take a language placement examination if they wish to continue their language study at SMU. If the period of time which has elapsed since the language was studied is longer than two years, students must only take a placement exam if they wish to take any course above the beginning level.

Students who have taken an AP exam and scored a 4 or 5 in their language of study are exempted from the placement testing requirement. SMU does not accept any Foreign Language CLEP exams for credit or placement. Credit for AP exams is given by the Office of Enrollment Services.

Native and Heritage Speakers

Neither native speakers nor heritage speakers are exempted from the placement exam.

Transfer Students

Transfer credits are handled through Enrollment Services. If a student with transfer credit wishes to continue study in their respective language they are required to take a placement exam, even if they have received transfer credit through the Office of Enrollment Services. Should a discrepancy between their placement exam placement and their earned credit exist, the student will need to forfeit the debated credit earned if they wish to continue their language study, but will be eligible for retroactive credit according to the usual process. Transfer students wishing to continue with language study must abide by the results of the placement tests. Exam results may be contested through a petition to the WLL Department Chair.

Language Exams Offered

Placement exams are offered in all languages taught at SMU (Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Spanish & Russian). Exams are accessible through Blackboard. Students wishing to take a placement exam should email eapflum@smu.edu and they will be added to the WLL PL Exam course. From there they can access all placement exams. Exams may be taken for more than one language, but each separate language exam may be taken only once. Please note that a separate fee will be incurred for each exam taken.

Retroactive Credit

By taking a placement exam students have the opportunity to receive retroactive credit for beginning and intermediate courses in their language of study. Once students have completed the course into which they were placed with a grade of C or higher they may request any retroactive credit earned (up to a maximum of 16 credits depending on the language of study).

Payment

The placement exam fee is not included in any AARO fees. The fee for each placement exam is $40. Student accounts will be billed for any placement exams started (whether finished or not).

Timing of Exam

Incoming students should take language placement exam(s) prior to attending AARO. Advisors cannot register a student for ANY language classes if he/she needs to have taken a placement exam but has not.

A placement exam may be taken online via Blackboard at any time and from any location. The exam results do not expire, although it is suggested that students register for language classes within a reasonable time after taking the placement exam so that the testing results reflect the student's current knowledge of the language.

There is no time limit on the exam. The exam generally takes less than one hour. Please contact Disability Accommodations and Success Strategies at 214-768-1470 if you have questions regarding services for students with disabilities.

Additional Information

Although some students review for the exam, it is to a student's advantage to have the exam reflect their current knowledge of the language. Students should remember to PRINT their score report or save to .pdf before exiting the exam. They will need to provide this documentation to their advisor for registration.

Questions

Additional information can be found on the World Languages and Literatures website: www.smu.edu/worldlanguages as well as the individual language websites.

Direct any non-technical questions about the placement exam to:

Chinese:	yxia@smu.edu	Japanese:	keikof@smu.edu
French:	oscherwi@smu.edu	Latin:	prawlins@smu.edu
German:	gbirrell@smu.edu	Russian:	tzimakov@smu.edu
Italian:	tbrenteg@smu.edu	Spanish:	vokic@smu.edu

Technical problems should be addressed to eapflum@smu.edu.

Testing for Placement cont'd

MATH

Six tests are offered during AARO:

- Math 1303 & 1304 pre-calculus: for placement only, no credit
- Math 1307, 1309, 1337 & 1338: for credit

Fee: $20; exact cash or check only.

Report with the $20 exam fee to Room 208, Clements Hall.

Review sample tests online: www.smu.edu/math/placement/

Which test should I take? See below; also see www.smu.edu/math/placement.

The mathematics department encourages students that have taken a strong precalculus course to take the placement exam so they do not have to repeat precalculus. Students that have taken calculus in high school can go directly into calculus without taking a placement exam, or they can receive credit for calculus by passing the appropriate credit exam. All mathematics credit exams must be taken before the first day of classes.

No calculators are allowed except for Math 1307, for which a calculator is required. Students who will need extra time on the placement/credit exam may request that at the door upon entering the exam. Students who need other accommodations for a disability must first contact Disability Accommodations and Success Strategies at 214-768-1470 to verify disability and establish eligibility for accommodation.

COMPUTER SCIENCE

One credit exam for CSE 1341: Principles of Computer Science is available during AARO. This exam is for students with Java programming experience who did not earn credit through an AP exam. This is NOT the Information Technology Exam. Email mfonten@tyle.smu.edu to schedule an exam.

Fee: $20; exact cash or check only.

Tuition and Fees

When you complete your course registration at AARO, the Division of Enrollment Services will send you a summary of your charges to your SMU email account. The charges will represent the cost of the hours in which you have enrolled, room and board, and selected Essential Services. Your payment is due upon receipt of your invoice. Students whose accounts are not cleared by the deadline are charged a late payment fee of $50 for balances between $250 and $999.99, and $150 for balances between $1,000 and $5,000. Balances over $5,000 are charged 3% of the outstanding balance not to exceed $750. After one month, all past due balances are charge 1.5% of the balance due. A Step in the Right Direction

As part of the University's comprehensive alcohol and drug abuse prevention program, SMU is asking each member of the first year and transfer class to complete College Alc – an online, science-based course that is taken by thousands of college students each year. The course provides detailed information about reducing risk with alcohol. Whether you drink or not, College Alc will empower you to make well-informed decisions about alcohol and help you better cope with the drinking behavior of your peers. All incoming students must complete College Alc prior to January 15. College Alc is available online now, so the course can be completed prior to AARO. We will be sending each of you log-in information and instructions for College Alc, and you may complete the course on any computer with internet access. Thank you in advance for taking the time to complete this important course, and welcome to SMU!

SMU Email Account

As part of your admissions to SMU, you are given an SMU email account for your use. All official SMU communication is directed through the SMU email account. It is very important that you check this account regularly for important information regarding registration, University events and emergency notification. To access your email, go to webmail.smu.edu.

Login using your SMU ID number and the same password used for logging in to Access.SMU. For additional information about SMU email or other technology services, visit smu.edu/oit.

If you need assistance, please contact the OIT Help Desk at 214-768-4357.

Textbooks

We urge you to take advantage of the SMU Bookstore's Textbook Reservation Program on our website at <http://smu.bncollege.com> immediately after registration at AARO. The greatest amount of discounted used books is available through the reservation program. We recommend you select your reservation be picked up in the store when you return to campus to begin classes, but you may also have your books shipped to your home for a nominal fee. You may also purchase your textbooks at AARO, but we will be in the process of receiving many of our spring textbooks, and may not have all of your books in stock. If you do choose this option, you will need to take your books with you; there is no on-campus storage for purchases.

ACCESS.SMU

ACCESS.SMU is the self-service system in which students enroll/drop classes, view the schedule of classes, view grades, view and request transcripts and degree progress reports, view financial aid and student account information, and update/verify personal information – addresses, phone/cell numbers, emergency contact and demographic summary.

Students have the final responsibility for the accuracy of their enrollment, the applicability of their courses towards their degree requirements and their academic performance. Please be sure to check your SMU email account regularly. The University uses the student's SMU email account as the official means of communication for notification of deadlines and other important announcements. Please review the Registrar's Home Page (smu.edu/registrar/) for more detailed information.

Reserve Your PO Box

If you live on campus during the academic year, you are required to have a post office box at the SMU Post Office. Register for your post office box at the SMU Mail and Copy Center by Ricoh, located on the main floor of the Hughes-Trigg Student Center. This PO Box number will be entered into your records at the time of registration and will be your official campus mailing address. The non-refundable $40 mailbox fee is charged to the student account along with the Spring term residence hall rent charge. Non-resident (commuter) students may rent a mailbox at the SMU Mail and Copy Center for a $40 fee. Payment will be accepted in the form of SMU Express Cash, Visa/MasterCard, or a personal check payable to Ricoh.

Release of Education Records & FERPA

To facilitate the sharing of information, SMU offers an easy method for students to grant permission to others (including parents) and, for those granted permission, the ability to access education records through the Release of Education Records feature in the self-service component of Access.SMU. For information and instructions visit <http://www.smu.edu/ferpa/students>. For more information on FERPA and SMU's FERPA policy visit the University Registrar's FERPA website at <http://smu.edu/ferpa>.

Disability Accommodations and Success Strategies

The mission of the Disability Accommodations and Success Strategies (DASS) team of the Altshuler Learning Enhancement Center (LEC) is to assist in creating an accessible university community, where students with documented disabilities have an opportunity to participate as fully as practicable in all aspects of the educational environment.

DASS is the primary contact for all SMU students with disabilities, such as learning and attention disorders, physical, sensory and medical disorders, psychiatric disorders, and others. DASS has three main functions: determining accommodation eligibility, collaborating with faculty and staff to ensure that accommodations are provided for those deemed eligible, and providing academic coaching for students with learning and attention disorders.

To be made eligible for accommodations a student must submit:

- 1) a Request for Services form found on the DASS website: and
- 2) appropriate, current documentation in keeping with the guidelines also posted on the website. Both steps must occur before documentation is reviewed. The review process may take up to two weeks, after which time a member of the DASS team will contact the student directly with an answer regarding eligibility.

Once a student is made eligible for accommodations, the student will meet with a DASS staff member to discuss the accommodations and the implementation of these accommodations. The student will be given letters for the student to distribute to each professor during an individual meeting with that professor. At the beginning of each subsequent semester, the student is responsible for requesting new letters for that semester via the DASS website.

Academic coaching is available at no charge for any SMU student with a diagnosed learning or attention disorder. Coaching focuses on the student's individual needs in the academic environment, such as time management, executive functioning issues, study skills, note taking skills, test preparation, and test taking strategies. Academic coaches are available by appointment.

More information is readily available at the DASS website (www.smu.edu/alec/dass), including frequently asked questions geared toward students, faculty and parents. You may also contact DASS with any questions or concerns at 214-768-1470.

Health Center Requirements

Your acceptance packet from the Division of Enrollment Services included a Medical Health History Form that must be completed. A physical examination is not required, but immunizations documented by your physician are required. A copy of your immunizations records from your previous school or clinic official records may be attached to the medical form. Submit these medical forms directly to SMU Memorial Health Center (not Enrollment Services). This must be on file with SMU's Health Center before you can register for classes.

If you still need the required or recommended immunizations, the Health Center can administer the following vaccines or tests for a fee: Measles, Mumps, Rubella (MMR), Tuberculosis (TB) skin test, Diphtheria, Tetanus (DT), or Diphtheria, Pertussis, Tetanus (DPT), Meningococcal, Hepatitis A, Hepatitis B and HPV.

To obtain another copy of the Medical Health History form or to inquire about vaccine prices, please visit the Health Center website. www.smu.edu/healthcenter

Immunizations and Health Form

All students (undergraduate, graduate, part-time and full-time to include international and IEP/ESL students) are required to have an SMU Health Form on file in the SMU Health Center before registration. To comply with SMU policy, all students must also submit to the Health Center immunization records that provide proof of immunization against measles, mumps and rubella (MMR). Required immunizations must be documented by a physician, public health record, military health record or school record. Some students may also be required to have a TB skin test within the 6 months prior to classes. Students will not be allowed to register for classes without immunization compliance.

Immunizations are available at the Health Center for a fee. Health Center Forms, prices and other information are available at the health center website: www.smu.edu/healthcenter. Please submit these Health Forms and immunization records directly to SMU Memorial Health Center (not Enrollment Services). Students are encouraged to check their Access.SMU account for immunization status.

Note: Effective January 1, 2012, Texas state law requires that all new students under the age of 30 must provide documentation demonstrating they have been vaccinated against bacterial meningitis within the past 5 years. Students seeking exemption from this requirement due to health risk or conscience, including religious belief, should see the second page of the SMU Health Form.

Academic Honesty Tutorial

SMU has a deep commitment to maintaining high standards of academic integrity among the student body. All entering students are required to read an online tutorial on academic honesty and then take an online quiz. This is accessed through Blackboard, the University's Course Management System. All entering students can log onto Blackboard using their SMU ID number as user name and the password they have been given for Access.SMU. Visit <http://smu.edu/cms/honesty>.

When a student has successfully completed the quiz, this information becomes available to advisors and the student's academic record reflects this. The tutorial and quiz may be taken as many times as needed. All new students – both first-year and transfer – are required to complete the tutorial and quiz prior to enrolling for their spring semester at SMU. There will be consequences for students who do not successfully complete the tutorial.
