The University requires that Ethnic/Racial Group information be on file for all students who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents. This information is for institutional use only. University policy and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) protect the confidentiality and privacy of this information. Please visit http://www.smu.edu/studentlife/PCL_08_FERPA for more information on FERPA.

The Ethnic/Racial Group categories were developed by the U.S. Office of Management and Budget and are used to describe groups to which U.S. citizens or permanent residents belong, identify with, or belong in the eyes of the community. These categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins:

American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America, including Central America, who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment.

Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia or the Indian Subcontinent, including (for example) Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand and Vietnam.

Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.

Hispanic or Latino: A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.

Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa or other Pacific Islands.

White: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East or North Africa.

Other: A person having multi-ethnic origins.

The Ethnic Group data currently contained in a student's records was provided by the student at the time of his/her application to SMU or at a later time. Select an ethnic/racial category from the list above and complete the following update and explanation.
