

Texas Almanac & State Industrial Guide:
1936 Texas Centennial Edition
Reprint of the Original Centennial Almanac

New Introduction by Jackie McElhaney

Reprinted in a limited edition of 250 by the William P. Clements Center for Southwest Studies
Southern Methodist University

Includes a two-sided map, 18-1/2" x 27"
"A Map of Texas, published by The Dallas Morning News for the Texas Almanac and State Industrial Guide"

"Texas for Tourists: A Highway and Reference Map
Published by the Dallas Morning News for the Texas Almanac and State Industrial Guide"

Praise for this new edition:

"What a novel and productive idea to reprint the 1936 Texas Almanac. It's an invaluable source of hard-to-get historical facts and statistics, fascinating odds and ends, and a delightful reminiscence."

Darwin Payne, author of many books on Texas, including Big D: Triumphs and Troubles

"For nearly 150 years, the Texas Almanac has provided a detailed portrait of the state—its geography, population, industry, and commerce. But the 1936 Almanac was special, the largest to that date, celebrating the state's 100th year of independence. SMU's William P. Clements Center for Southwest Studies has rendered a great service to all students of Texas history—both professional and amateur—by republishing this valuable and rare work."

Michael V. Hazel, Editor, Legacies

ORDER FORM

Name: _____ Phone/email: _____

Address: _____ City, State, Zip: _____

Number of books: _____ x $25.00 = _____
(including folded map)

Flat map only : _____ x $15.00 = _____
(suitable for framing)

8.25% Texas sales tax if applicable = _____

Postage: $3.50 for per book/folded map = _____

Postage: $4.00 flat map in mailing tube = _____

TOTAL: = $ _____

Please make checks payable to Clements Center for Southwest Studies and mail with this form to:

Clements Center for Southwest Studies
Southern Methodist University
SMU Box 750176
Dallas, TX 75275-0176

For questions about ordering these books,
Please call the Clements Center at (214) 768-3684 or email swcenter@smu.edu.