

Ashlee and Chris Kleinert are SMU alumni whose enthusiasm for education and youth is reflected in many of their activities. Ashlee was an elementary school teacher before becoming a homemaker and mother of three children. She has served as president of the Parish Episcopal School Parents' Association and chaired their annual gala and auction. Ashlee is currently co-chair of the Board Development Committee of CONTACT Crisis Line and the Genesis Women's Shelter First Priority Lecture Series, and she serves on the board of the YWCA. Chris is president of Hunt Investment Corporation, serves on the board of SMU's Tate Lecture Series and the Investment Committee of SMU's Board of Trustees. Chris also serves on the Dallas Advisory Board for Amegy Bank and the Program Committee of the Southwest Venture Forum. Chris has served as chairman of the Board of Trustees and Executive Committee of Parish Episcopal School of Dallas and has enjoyed coaching youth sports for all three of their children.

October 3, 2007