Guidelines for Publication of Articles

- Typically, articles should be 10 to 20 pages. We can take some a bit longer. We usually cannot take anything beyond 30 pages.
- The articles should be in MS Word, one inch margins.
- We prefer footnotes, Chicago Style.
- All titles should be in italics, not underlined.
- Articles should include a one paragraph abstract of the article (if the article is in Spanish the abstract should be in English and vice versa)
- Please include a very short bio of the author, including name, title, and where the author teaches/ministers), as well as contact information (email) and mailing address for their free copy.
- Articles should be of interest to Latinos/as or deal with Latino/a issues.
- Send article submissions to David Maldonado, Jr Interim Editor of Apuntes, at apuntes@smu.edu or map@smu.edu
