

Czech and Germany in WWII and the Cold War

May 16-26, 2022

Prague | Nuremberg | Dresden | Leipzig | Berlin

Join the Center for Presidential History and Essential History Expeditions for a fully guided and immersive tour to explore the people and places of central Europe, from the September 1938 German occupation of Czechoslovakia, to the liberation battles in 1944-45; through the battle of Berlin in April-May 1945 that completed Europe's liberation from Nazi rule; and then on through the decades-long Cold War in the capitals and cities of two nations caught between the Great Powers. We will walk the fields and city streets, and learn from local experts and guest lecturers.

This trip features in-depth guided tours and lectures for all sites, all admission fees and transportation, all lodging and meals as detailed on the itinerary. AIRFARE IS NOT INCLUDED.
