

Daniel (Dan) Hoverman

Executive Vice President, Head of Investment Banking Managing Partner and President, TCBI Securities, Inc.

Daniel S. Hoverman is Head of Investment Banking and focuses on leading our delivery of a wide array of products, services and solutions to our clients. He also serves as Managing Partner and President of TCBI Securities, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Texas Capital Bank that is pending approval of its application with FINRA to operate as a broker-dealer. Mr. Hoverman joined Texas Capital Bank in August 2021, bringing more than 20 years of experience encompassing financial and legal roles in investment banking, corporate advisory and capital markets.

He most recently served as Managing Director, Head of Corporate Advisory and Sponsors Coverage at Regions Bank in Dallas, Texas, where he led a team focused on originating and executing financing and advisory transactions. Prior to that, Mr. Hoverman was a Director in the Corporate Finance group at Houlihan Lokey, where he advised clients on mergers and acquisitions and capital markets activities. He previously held various financial and legal roles at Credit Suisse, UBS Investment Bank and Kirkland & Ellis in New York, London and Hong Kong.

Mr. Hoverman earned a BA from Yale University, where he was Robert C Bates Fellow and received the New Prize. Mr. Hoverman also earned a JD and an MBA from Columbia University, where he was a John M. Olin Fellow and a James Kent Scholar. He holds FINRA Series 7, 24, 63 and 79 licenses, is a Chartered Financial Analyst and is an inactive member of the New York Bar. He volunteers as the Treasurer and a member of the board of directors of USA Lacrosse Texas, a non-profit focused on encouraging participation in lacrosse in the State of Texas.

Mr. Hoverman was born in Houston, Texas, and graduated from Austin High School in Austin, Texas. He lives in Dallas with his wife and three children.