

KARIN D. QUIÑONES

KQuinones@cox.smu.edu

Education

Ph. D.	2003	Rice University	Houston, TX
M.A.	2000	Rice University	Houston, TX
B.A.	1997	Wake Forest University	Winston-Salem, NC Cum Laude, Psi Chi Honor Society, Dean's List

Positions Held

Adjunct Professor Southern Methodist University January 2008 to present

- Courses Taught
 - Introduction to Management MNO 3370
 - Honors Introduction to Management MNO 3370H
 - Project Management MNO 4361
- University Service
 - Undergraduate Research Steering Committee (2018-present)
 - Engaged Learning Advisory Committee (2015- 2017)
 - Engaged Learning Selection Committee (2015-2017)
 - Engaged Learning Mentor on multiple student projects

Senior Research Scientist University of Arizona 2004 – 2005

- Senior researcher in the Artificial Intelligence Lab and the Hoffman E-Commerce Lab in the MIS department at the Eller College of Management.

Consultant OPGI 2005

- Conducted ergonomic evaluations.

Baker College Master Rice University 2000-2003

- Administrative head of a residential college of 300 undergraduate students

Asst. Human Factors Legal Consultant for Ken Laughery, Ph.D 2000-2001

- Worked on legal cases involving an accident with human factors related causes.

Usability Test Center Intern US WEST, Inc. Human Factors Engineering IT 2000

- Received US WEST's Circle of Excellence Award for work on redesign of an intranet technical support site. Developed procedures, tools, and marketing materials for the newly created Usability Test Center. Conducted heuristic evaluations.

Teaching Interests

- Management, Organizational Behavior, and Leadership
- Project Management and Agile
- Usability and Human-Computer Interaction
- Introductory Statistics and Research Methods