

Craig Woodfield

North Texas Financial Services Industry Practice Leader
North Texas Audit Practice Leader

Craig is an Audit Partner with 20 years of combined audit and industry experience. Currently, he serves as the financial services practice leader for Grant Thornton's Dallas office.

Craig's audit experience includes serving clients in a variety of financial services sectors, with a particular emphasis in servicing, investment funds and banking. His clients include FDICIA and non FDICIA banks, mortgage and auto finance servicing institutions and registered investment companies.

Craig's industry experience includes serving as a Managing Director with a top five investment bank where he was responsible for the accounting and treasury operations of their $80 billion loan servicing and warehouse lending operation. He also served as a Vice President and Director of corporate accounting for an international financial services company that serviced over $100 billion of consumer finance and commercial lease receivables. This combination of public accounting and financial services industry experience allows Craig to bring his clients a deep operational understanding of their business and a practical client service approach.

Craig's areas of particular technical expertise include securitization and capital market transactions, loan servicing and consumer and commercial lending

Education

Craig received his Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Brigham Young University and Master's Degree from Brigham Young University's Marriott School of Management.
