Course Objectives:

This course focuses on preaching the gospel from the Old and New Testaments.

Students will be able to:

1. Articulate a theology of proclamation
2. Exegete a variety of biblical passages for preaching
3. Evaluate sermons for biblical integrity, theological soundness, internal logic, and delivery, and appropriate insights gained from the evaluation of their own sermons.
4. Develop plans for ordering and delivering sermons in their congregational settings (or equivalent).

Required Texts:

1. For use in the Pre-class assignment:
 - a. Paul Scott Wilson, ed., The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching
(If you do not wish to purchase the NIHP, you can access it online through the Bridwell catalog HERE. Once in Ministry Matters, click on the "Research Library" tab in the top right corner of the webpage. Then in the list that appears, click on "Sermons" and then the sub tab of "Christian" and you will see the Handbook listed. Once in the eBook, there is a little Table of Contents icon next to the title at the top of the page (). Click on it to navigate to each assigned article.)
2. For use in the in-person class sessions:
 - a. Marvin A. McMickle, Shaping the Claim: Moving from Text to Sermon
