Mid-Semester Check-in

You are almost halfway into the fall semester attending classes in person. Now is an excellent time to check in with yourself to see where you are on the path for success. Check out these questions below to see if you are where you want to be. Midterm grades are out the end of October.

Have you submitted your semester request and met with each instructor to get your accommodations implemented ?

How did the first round of tests go? Did you make adjustments in your studying based on those results?

Have you seen a tutor at the A-LEC? Do you know how to find the tutoring schedule?

Are you utilizing your Semester at a Glance to keep an eye on upcoming dates and deadlines?

Check in on your mood...do you need to tend to your mental health?

Do you need to step it up a notch?

There are lots of resources on campus to help with all of these areas mentioned above, and more. Please feel free to contact DASS for assistance. We're here to point you in the right direction.

Tips for Spring 2025 Semester Enrollment

- Undergraduate students must meet with an academic advisor BEFORE enrolling for the spring semester for assistance in planning and scheduling courses that will count towards graduation requirements. Please note that students are responsible for the accuracy of their enrollment, the applicability of the coursed towards degree requirements and their academic performance. Schedule now!
- Check my.SMU for your enrollment appointment time (Click on Student Dashboard, Enrollment (left-hand side), Enrollment Dates, Select Term) and any Holds or Tasks which need to be cleared prior to your enrollment. Check towards end of October.
- Make sure you have cleared any holds from your account and be aware that updates on accounts can take up to 24 hours. Plan ahead!

More information can be found on the SMU Registrar webpage
